Foreword

"We're from Grady—couldn't be prouder"—At every football game, basketball game and pep rally we yell this cheer, but do we really mean it? What do we have to be proud of? There is so much to be proud of here at Grady: scholarship, activities, and school spirit; the high scholastic standing of Grady, the many students who bring honor to themselves and our school by winning awards and scholarships, the football team, the band, and chorus, the basketball team, all the worthwhile projects Grady students participate in, as individuals, clubs, and as a student body, that we sometimes take for granted. We have been at the top in so many fields so often that we seem to forget and ignore all our triumphs. This year we wish to present to you in the Orator what Grady can be proud of, to remind, or possibly show you for the first time, the reasons we can say, "We're from Grady couldn't be prouder."

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO MR. KING

Mr. Byron King is known and loved by every student that graduates from Grady High School. Its advisor to both the Student Council and the Skit Club, we see the products of his labors behind the scenes all through the school year. He introduced many of us to declensions, conjugations, and the other strange systems of Latin. It is as an English teacher that he has perhaps made his greatest contribution to Grady students. He has the rare ability to make literature meaningful and tremendously important to students.

Although any of his students will tell you they have worked harder in Mr. King's classes than in any other, they will also tell you how much they have enjoyed it; that it was a memorable experience. They crowd into his classes despite the hard work, because he makes literature come alive. It is no longer a chore but something they enjoy and do because they want to.

Mr. King is a scholarly person, graduate of Vanderbilt University, he was educated in liberal arts and the humanities. He holds both a bachelor and Master Degree. He brings to his classes not only the benefit of his formal schooling, but also the experience he has had on his extensive travels. He has been to Europe twice. He was in World War II.

He is teacher of English 10—Dramatics, he directs the Senior Play which is a highlight of everyone's school year and is so very important to those in their senior year.

Mr. King not only gives adequate preparation for college and daily usage to his students, and works with many activities around the school, but he manages to be a friend and respected advisor to his students. He is loved and respected by his fellow teachers as well as his students.

What's the Good Word?

MR. DERTHICK

It seems almost impossible that Mr. Roger H. Derthick has been at Grady only one year. He has become a very important part of the life of every Grady student, not only because of his official capacity as principal and final authority on all matters that concern us as students, but because everyone at Grady, from the meekest sub-freshman to the most sophisticated senior, has come to feel that he is our friend.

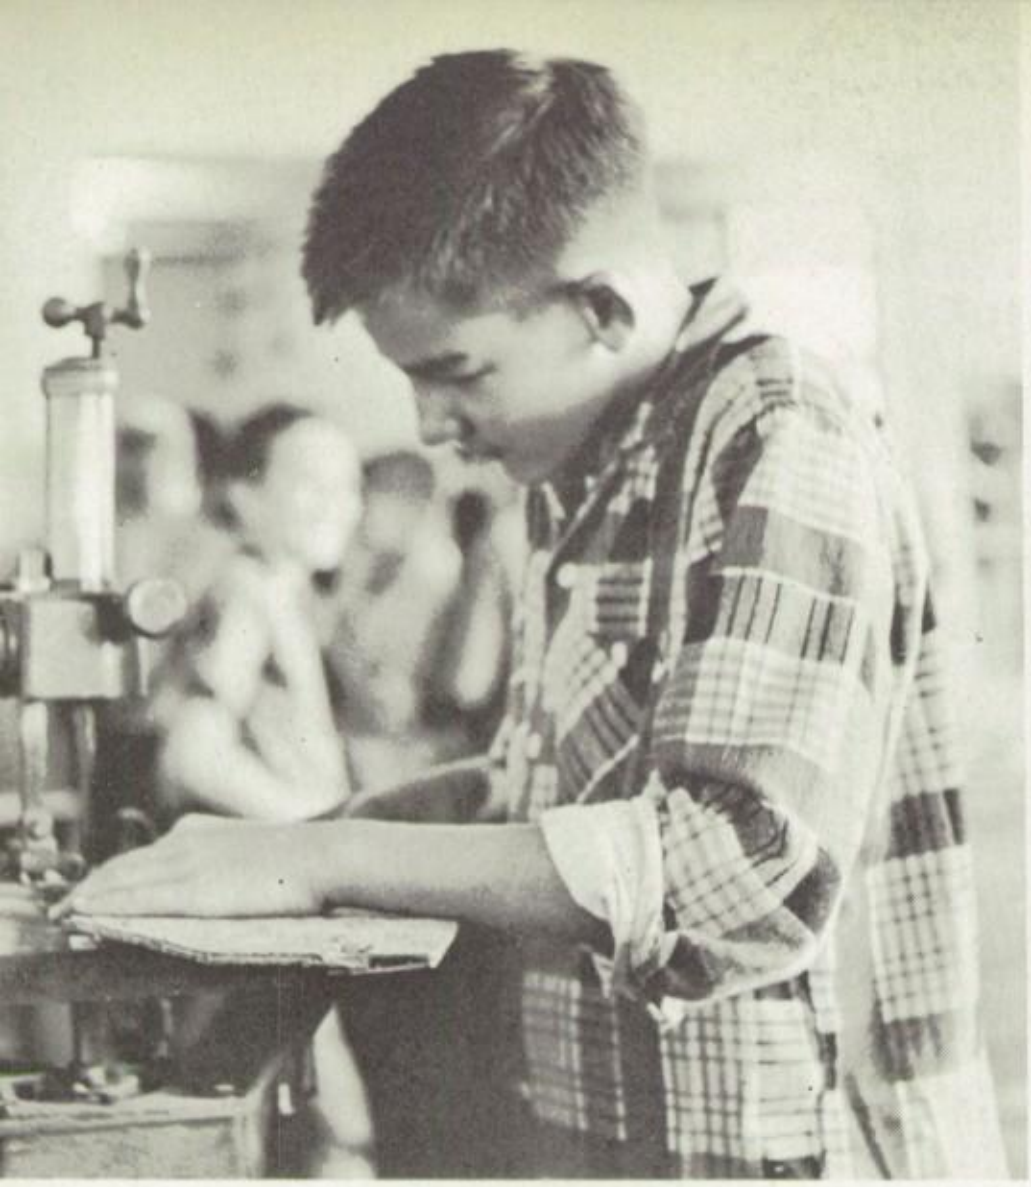
Mr. Derthick has been in the Atlanta School System for 20 years. He is a graduate of Millican College, in Tennessee, and received his Masters Degree in Education at the University of Tennessee. From there he went to Peabody College and taught at the Demonstration School. He taught at Murphy Junior High School, also. In 1952, he became principal of the Nathan B. Forrest Elementary School. From 1954 until he came to Grady this fall, he was principal of the Cleveland Avenue Elementary School.

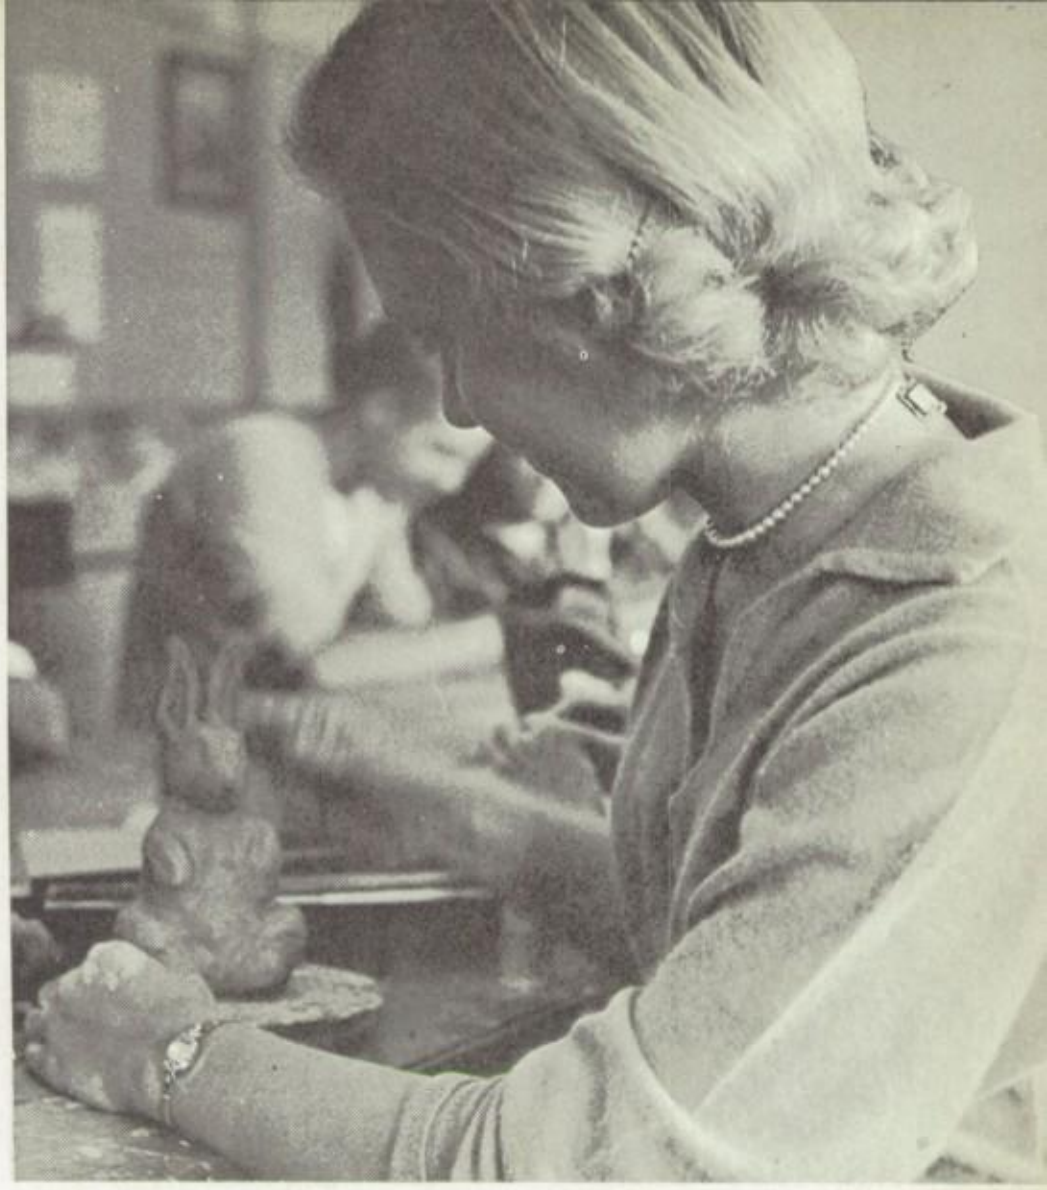
Mr. Derthick is president of the Atlanta Teachers Association and a member of numerous other organizations. He is proudest of his honorary membership in the Grady Chapter of the Beta Club. This is typical of Mr. Derthick's fine attitude for first and primary concern of the students.

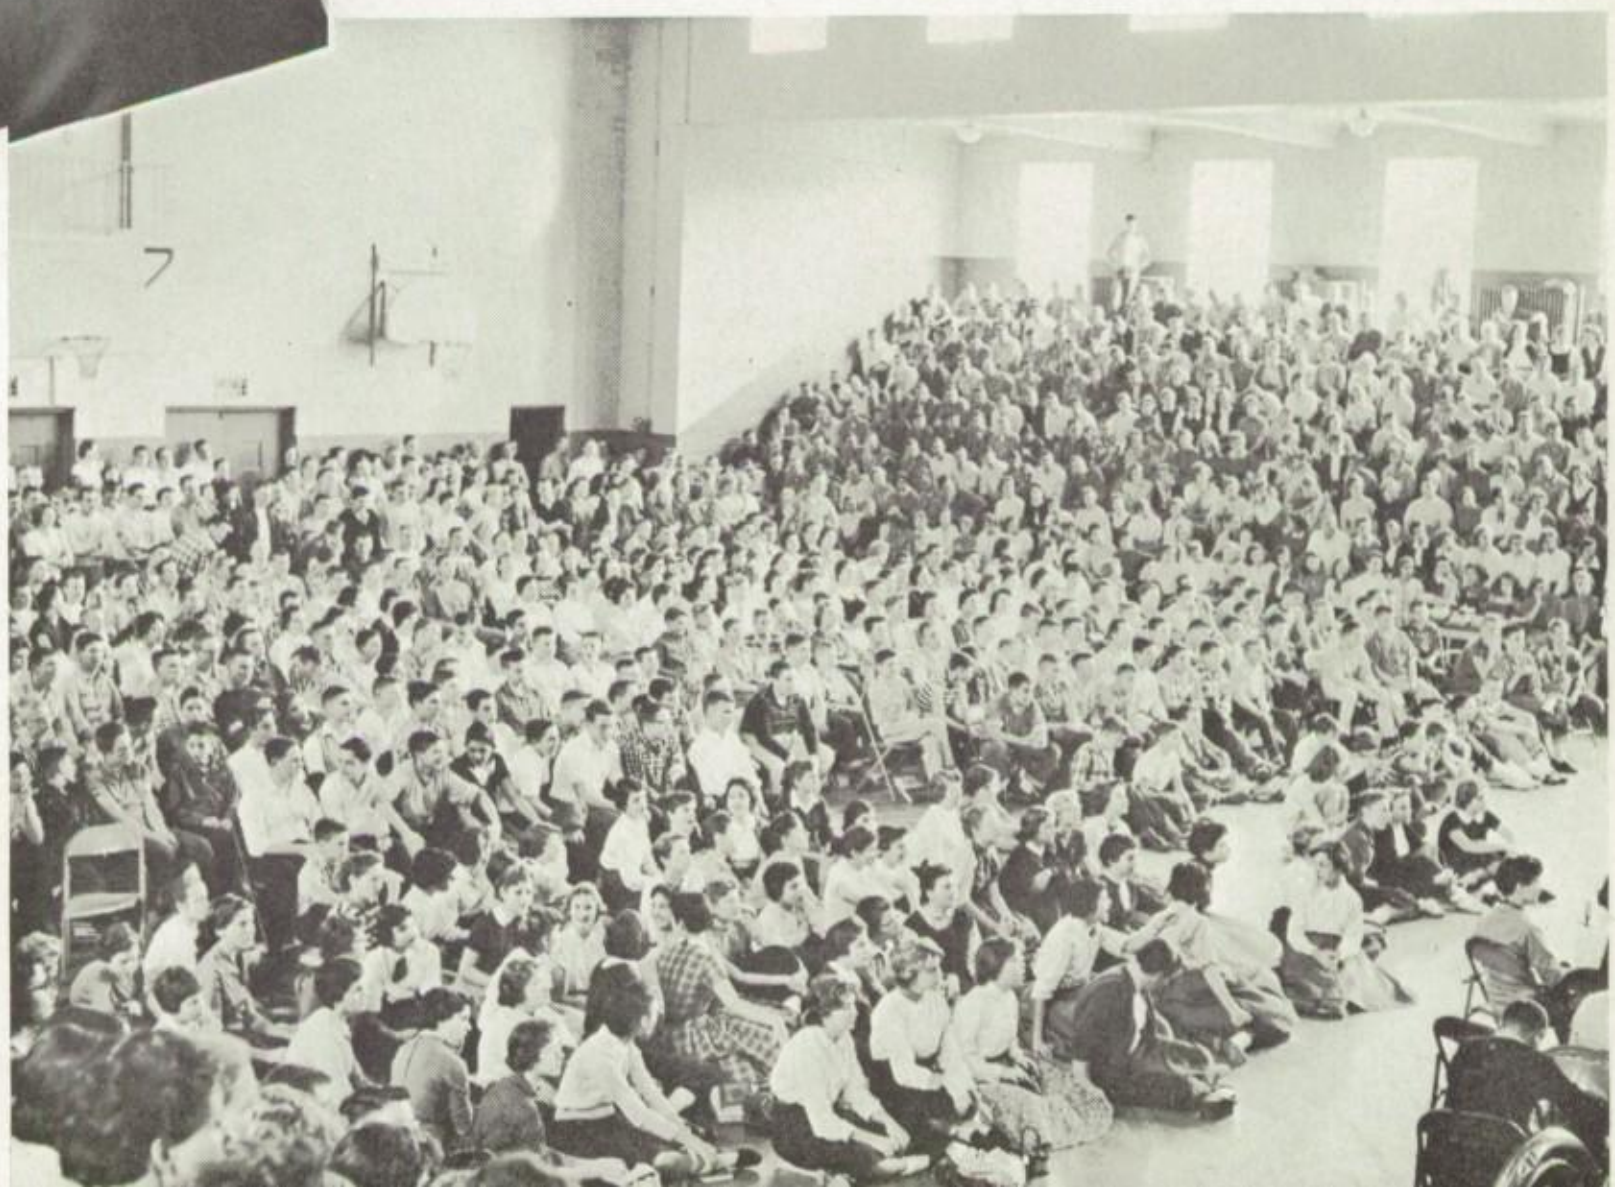
Morning Activities

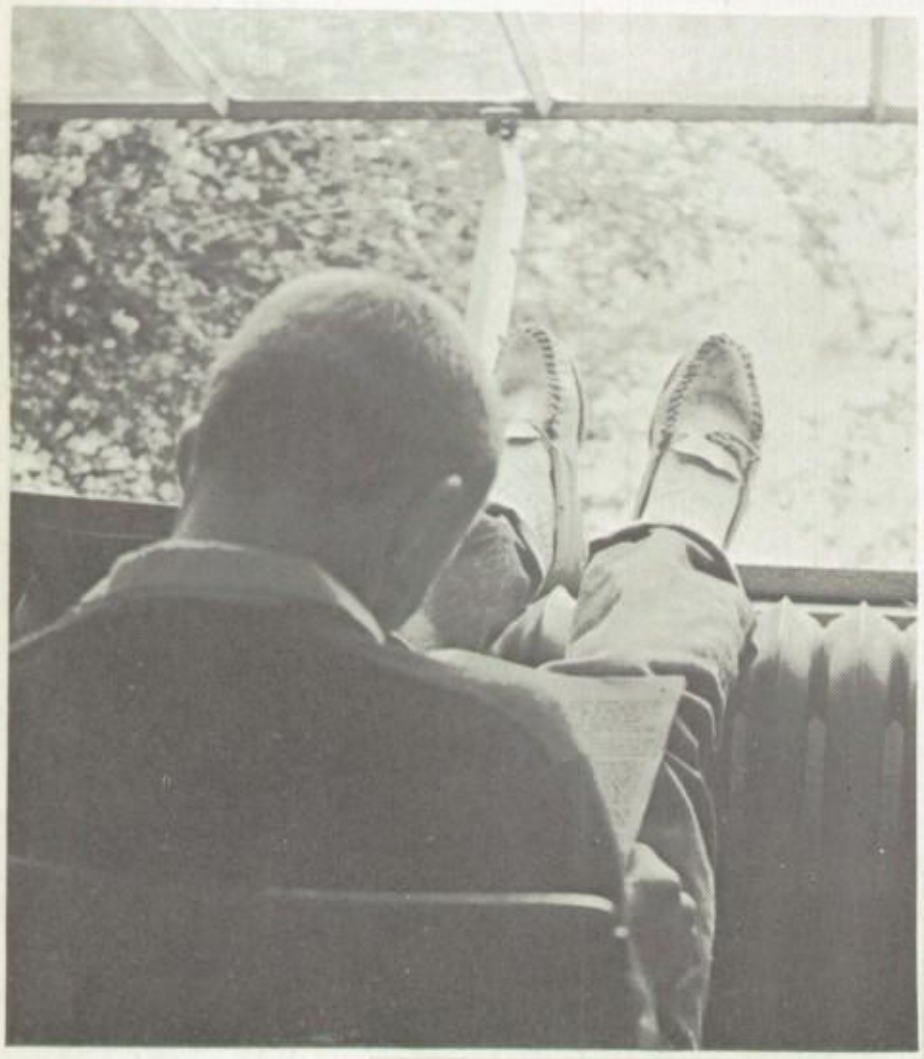
There are many activities carried on at a school the size of Grady, some for the whole student body, some for only a few individuals.

The day begins with Home Room, with the pledge to the flag, reading of the Bible, and prayer over the loud speaker system, followed by the announcements for the day or week and various business in the homerooms such as registration, elections and other business that comes up through the year. It is also a time for hurried conferences about such important issues as "how do you do the algebra homework?" "when is the next club meeting?" "what did you make on the English test?", and, of course, "John called me last night," or dire fate "John didn't call me last night."









Afternoon Activities

The afternoon begins with lunch at either the cafeteria or snack bar, after which the second half of the day of classes and activities starts. Often the welcome relief of study hall, where last minute reviewing and early completion of assignments is done, comes in the afternoon. Such activities as Orator, Southerner, and Orchestra meet at 5th period, and then comes the last and hardest period of the day. Many upper classmen go home this period. For some, 6th period is a relief, for some a final measure of misery, for others a prolonged effort to stay awake.

After School

With the ringing of the 3 o'clock bell another day of work and learning is over. Students jam into halls going to their lockers to get the necessary books and other things for their afternoon activities. Some rush home, others stop for "gab fests," for consultations with teachers, or for make up work and book reports. Others head for the library to do research or get required books, or books for pleasure. Most club meetings are after school, either immediately after school or at night, and all sports events are attended at this time. All must eventually head for home and "hit the books."

So Important

ADMINISTRATION

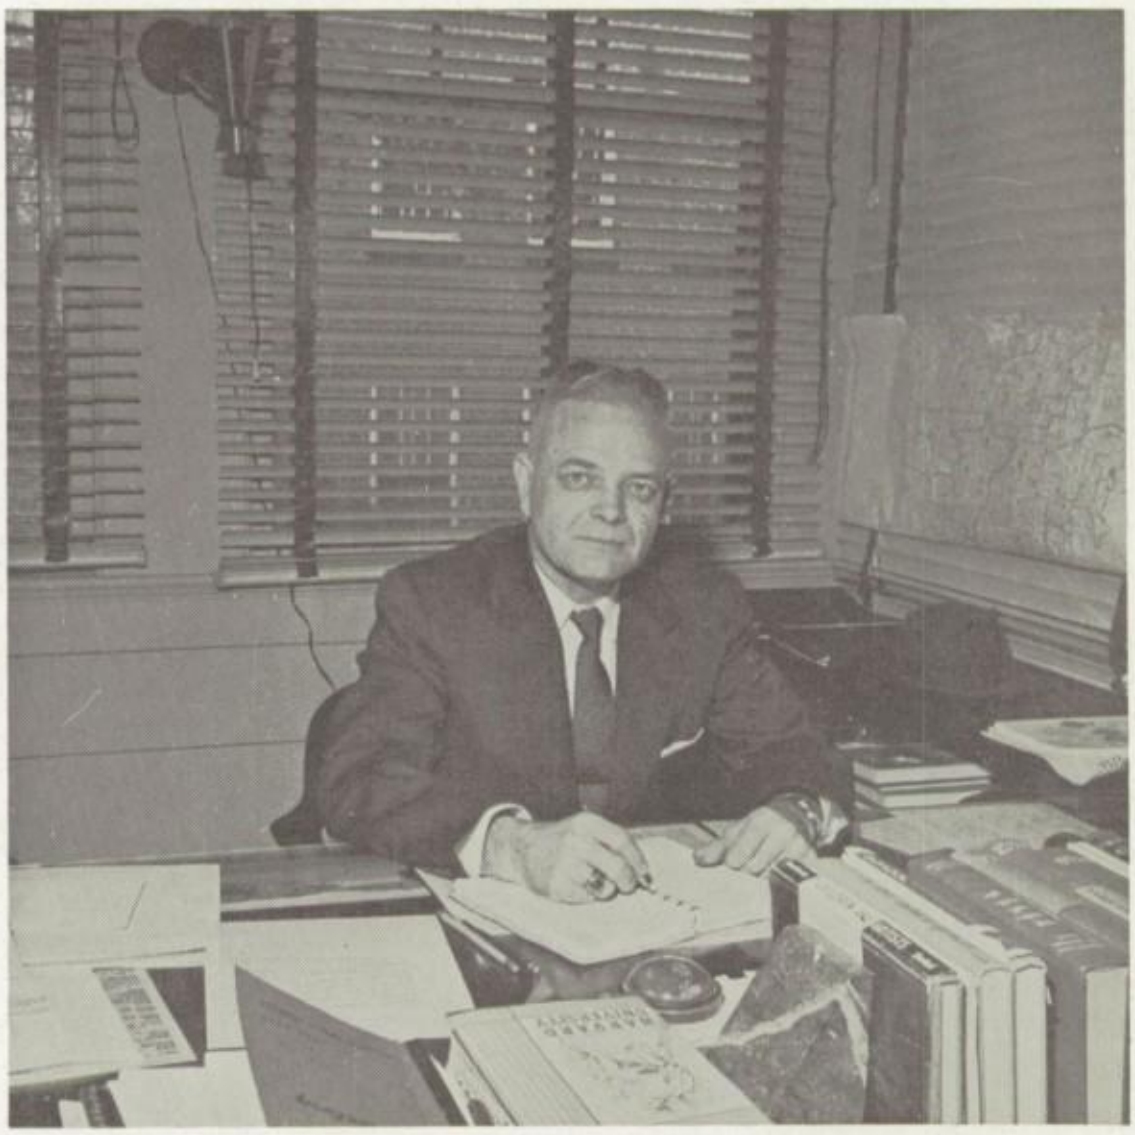
The administration of the Atlanta Public School System has been a very successful one under the leadership of Dr. Ira Jarrell. She has instigated many plans to improve the public schools and has made Atlanta one of the leading educational centers in the Southeast.

Under her guidance the community high school system was established in 1947. Each of the sixteen high schools has been evaluated and is fully accredited by the Southeastern Association for Secondary Schools and Colleges. Every student at Grady today is benefiting from this system.

Working ably under Dr. Jarrell's direction are Dr. G. Y. Smith, Mr. Roy W. Davis, Mr. T. W. Clift, and Mr. M. E. Coleman. We have their fine staffs to thank for the advantage of education as offered in Atlanta.

The Board of Education is a policy making body. The members are: President, Mr. Devereaux McClatchey; President Emeritus, Mr. Ed S. Cook; 2nd Ward, Mr. Neil M. Baldwin, Jr.; 3rd, Dr. Rufus Clement; 4th, Mr. Franklin C. Rodgers; 5th, Mr. A. C. Latimer; 6th, Mr. J. Austin Dilbeck; 7th, Mr. P. L. Barden; 8th, Mrs. Clifford N. Ragsdale. Miss Louise Simpson is the Secretary to the Board.

Grady Becomes Part of Area Six



DR. RUAL W. STEPHENS

Grady is in Area Six, whose superintendent is our beloved former principal, Dr. Rual W. Stephens. Approximately twenty elementary schools and three high schools, Grady, Bass, and O'Keefe, are in the area. Under the direction of Dr. Stephens, and working directly with these schools, in his staff, which includes Miss Louise Stakely, high school resource teacher, who assists in the selection of textbooks, the revision of curriculum and materials and coordinates instruction in high schools. Mrs. Harold Brown has a similar position in connection with grammar schools. Mrs. Helen Fattig is resource Librarian, selecting textbooks, installing libraries, particularly in elementary schools, recommending librarians, stimulating interest and directing librarians. The Visiting Counsellor is Mr. Glenn Bradshaw, who conducts investigations, provides counselling, and stimulates attendance to ward off truancy and delinquency. Mr. J. E. Rutlege is the school detective, handling break-ins, order at school activities, and delinquency. Miss Katherine Comfort is supervisor of art, and Miss Ann Grace O'Callahan is supervisor of music. Miss Elizabeth Hannah is secretary.

Miss DeFoor Retires

This year with the retirement of Mrs. Agnes Duffer DeFoor, Grady is losing one of its most valuable teachers. Mrs. DeFoor, who has been teaching since she was 19, has been at Grady since 1947. She has taught social studies and law, and has worked with nearly every school activity, particularly student government, guidance counselling, and coaching athletics.

Mrs. DeFoor holds degrees from Brenau, Emory, Oglethorpe, and the Atlanta Law School. Among the honors that have come to her have been keys in both psychology and law. She has held offices in the Georgia Business and Professional Women's Club, the Georgia and the National Association of Women's Lawyers. Listed in American Women, she has been a National Dean of her Legal, as well as her social sorority. Mrs. DeFoor has had several articles published and has collaborated on books. She has won tournaments in both tennis and golf.

The students' feelings for Mrs. DeFoor are shown by a former senior class naming her the "teacher they most want their younger brothers and sisters to have," and her being placed on the gridiron court. This year she was chosen "Teacher of the year" at Grady. We are proud of teachers like Mrs. DeFoor.

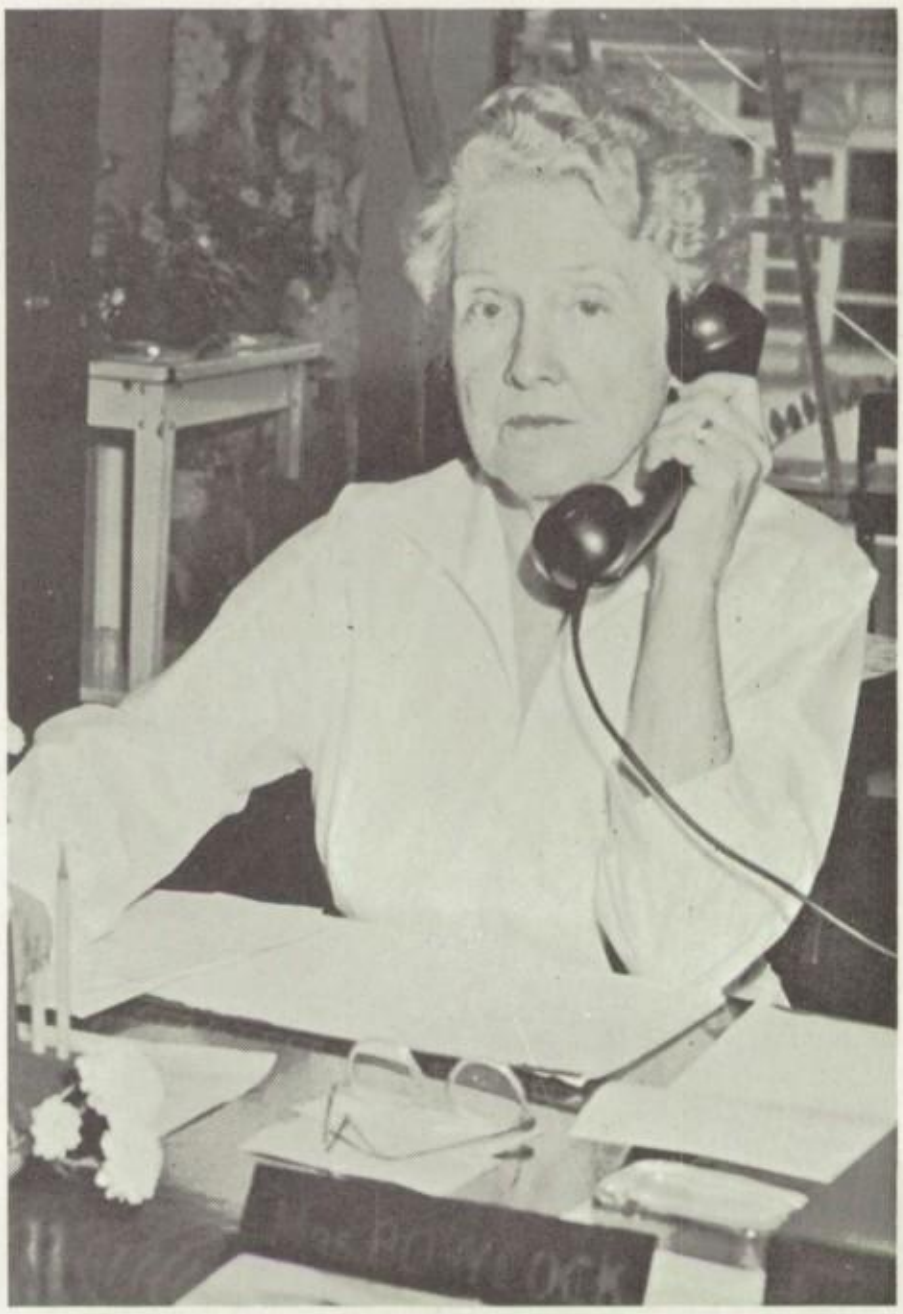
Secretaries... Counselors... Clinic

Telephoning the homes of those absent, typing transcripts, and filing records are only a few of the numerous jobs which occupy the two secretaries employed in the Grady office. One can perceive the complicated plan on which a school of nearly 1600 students is run, just by walking into the office and hearing the busy hum of typewriters, phones ringing, and the general hub-bub of office procedure. The secretaries are Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Brown.

Across the hall is another important office. There the counselors carry on their vital business with students and parents by talking over personal and school problems, supplying information about colleges, getting jobs for students, and orientating sub-freshmen. But most important, they are good-natured friends of everyone. In this office, difficult problems of behavior, attitude, or schedule arrangement are solved. Here at Grady, we have two of the finest counselors in the Atlanta School System, Miss Elizabeth Setze and Mr. C. O. Morris. No "thank you" could be enough to express our gratitude for the patience, understanding and friendly guidance they have rendered to every student who has sought their aid.

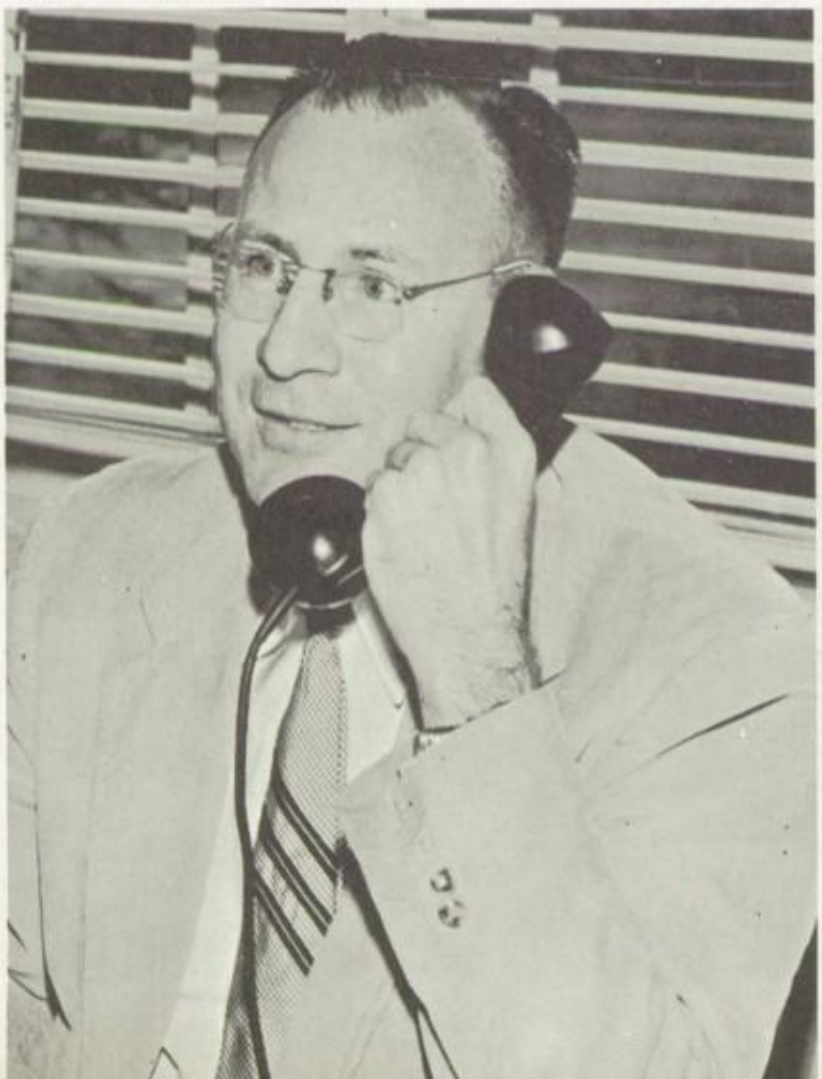
The ring of the telephone begins a busy day for secretary, Sarah Smith.

Accuracy and speed are the two factors which make Mrs. Julia Brown a reliable secretary.



Aspirins, desk flowers, and thermometers remind Grady of its wonderful nurse, Mrs. Bob Bowcock.

Because of the many duties of a principal, Mr. Neil Baxter, assistant principal, shares responsibilities and duties with Mr. Derthick.



Counselors, Miss Elizabeth Setze and Mr. C. O. Morris, efficient, understanding, and pleasant, are two people without whom Grady would be at a loss.

Faculty

All Gradyites are closely associated with the English department since everyone must take English every year. The fundamentals of grammar, the great literature of the past and present and composition are taught to everyone, and dramatics, speech, creative writing and journalism are offered to those interested.

The Science Department offers the regular courses of health, general science and general biology, and for interested students the more advanced courses of human biology, chemistry and physics. The Science Fair and the Westinghouse Talent Search annually serve to inspire students to further interest and present the accomplishments of some of our fellow students and those of other schools.

In the background for entering the business world is given the Business Education Department. Such courses as Bookkeeping and Office Practice and Business Law which are provided for those students embarking on business careers. Typing and shorthand are also offered which are of benefit to all students whatever their plans.

Homemaking is a valuable course for every girl. Our homemaking Department offers courses in food, where cooking, nutrition, and home nursing are taught, clothing, home management, and personal improvements.

Art courses are offered to every grade level and can be taken at any time. Besides the course in art design, a course in painting, and one in ceramics is offered. School service, art provides the signs and posters used around the school and decorations for dances and other social functions.

Grady offers a very full program in mathematics. In addition to basic math, taught in the eighth grade, a student may take further basic math, algebra, plane and solid geometry, business arithmetic, trigonometry and calculus. All types of mathematics for either a business or college preparatory course are offered.

All students at Grady are required to take physical education if they are not taking some other approved activity. Through physical education students have an opportunity to get exercise and to learn and participate in many sports. Girls are offered special courses in tumbling, ballet, and tennis and get basketball, softball, tennis, and volleyball in the general course.

Industrial Art courses are required for eighth grade boys and more advanced courses are offered in print, woodshop, and mechanical drawing. These courses offer insight into Industrial processes and offer an opportunity to learn the fundamentals of a specific field and more fully appreciate the workmanship and quality of the things they live around and work with every day. A knowledge of mechanical drawing is a prerequisite for an engineering course.

Every student is required to take social studies in all but one year in high school. In the eighth grade community citizenship teaches him about city and state governments and institutions, Atlanta in general and Georgia in particular. World history in the tenth grade and American history in the eleventh grade show how the world developed into what it is today and throw light on many of today's problems. In their senior year, students are offered social problems; and problems of democracy, with sociology, and current world affairs, as electives which help us to know and understand the world we live in.

Music is one of the most important and popular parts of Grady. Through the band, choruses, orchestra, and other music courses, students have an opportunity to increase their knowledge in any phase of music and gain public experience, as well as enjoy the personal creation of good music.

Military, required for tenth grade boys and an elective on approval for junior and senior boys, gives boys a good foundation for further miliary training, and for serving their country in the future. Capt. Hill, Sgt. Morris, and Sgt. Bailey teach the boys discipline.

The foreign language department offers courses in the three languages by election. Through studying French, Spanish, and Latin, we can gain a better understanding of the lands in which they are spoken plus additional light on our own language.

the individuals who earn honors. These outstanding students by their ability and willingness to exert extra effort bring acclaim not only to themselves but also to our school. We "always knew" they were "good," but we are filled with added pride when they place "first" in the city, the district, the state, or the nation.

The Merit Scholarship Examination given at thousands of high schools across the nation and in American schools abroad is designed to provide grants to the most promising college prospects regardless of their financial ability. Financed by the Ford Foundation, the Carnegie Corporation and other business and industrial firms, the nation's top one or two per cent of high school seniors receive four-year college scholarships.

The "Most Valuable Student" award is made in every community by the Elks National Foundation to students who are leaders in their school. The award is based on scholarship, citizenship, personality, perseverance, resourcefulness, patriotism, general worthiness, and financial need. For application the student prepares in notebook form his educational history from his first year of high school.

We salute these students!

Winners in the Elks National Scholarship Award program admire each others' notebooks. Earle Saye as the top boy in the district in which Grady and three other high schools are grouped won the $100; Elizabeth Barrett was awarded $50; and Alice Goodrich, $25.

David Krant relaxes as he reads the book awarded him by the local Harvard Club as the most outstanding boy in the Junior class. When he was in the eighth grade David, as the state's champion speller, won a trip to Washington, D. C. Since then his work has continued to merit recognition.

Joel Piassick (not pictured), Mack Briggs and Charlotte Hammond placed first, second, and third in the American Legion Contest. In the library conference room at Grady they read up on the U. S. Constitution before writing their winning essays.

Anne Minkin explains how her spectroscope is used. She became enthusiastic after a visit to the Goodwin Planetarium and made her model for the Atlanta District Science Congress. She won second place in the General Science catagory. In April she will enter her spectroscope in the State Science Fair. State winners go to the National Fair.

David Krant and Sylvia Lafkowitz were winners of the first and Second places in the Junior Chamber of Commerce oratorical contest, I Speak for Democracy —"the basis of freedom and equal opportunity."

A pin and a certificate was the D. A. R. "Good Citizenship" award given Joan Mumford. She was selected for this honor because of her participation in school activities, scholastic attainment, and community interests.

James Maddox, Jr., was Grady's champion speller to meet the representatives from all the schools in Fulton County. A trip to the nation's capital is the award for the state winner in the Atlanta Journal's annual spelling bee.

Why is thrift important? Her answer won Karen Stovall a trip to Chicago and an onyx plaque with pen. Karen was one of the 75,000 entrees from over the U. S. in the contest sponsored locally by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association. Also, Karen tied with Grady's champion speller this term.

Betty Gates captured the first award for Grady, the second award city-wide in the Sears Roebuck sewing contest, 1956.

Johnny Walker likes automobiles. And he is a good driver. Grady won four out of five places in the "Road-eo" held for the five schools in this district, and Johnny won for Grady.

Right
Richard Wemmers studies his target. He was the outstanding member of the Grady Rifle team this term. Out of the thirteen schools in the system, Richard was the second highest man with an average of 180.09 in twelve matches. Malcolm Jones (not pictured) also was a valuable member. In the Third Army William Randolph Hearst Trophy Match in which 82 high schools competed, Mike tied for fourth place with a score of 189 out of a possible 200.

Far Right
The Georgia Music Festival accorded Ann Roper a superior rating for her performance with the Grady orchestra. Ann is versatile; in addition to playing the harp she likes to twirl.

SENIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the Senior National Honor Society is the highest honor a Junior or Senior at Grady can receive. To be eligible for membership, a student must be in the eleventh or twelfth grades, have an "A" average if he is a Senior, and never have made below a "C" at any time. In addition to this, a student must have shown enthusiasm, leadership, and service and be recommended for membership. This year thirty-three new members were taken in, the most ever taken in at one time. The main project of the Honor Society is to help with the schedules before and during the Christmas holidays. The meetings are held on the second and fourth Thursdays of every month. Miss Perkins is the advisor, Dan Goldwasser, the president, Sylvia Lafkowitz, the vice-president, Julia Dunning, the secretary, Mike Jones, the treasurer, and Eileen Little, the Parliamentarian. They hold a banquet or party each year.

JUNIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The first honor club open to Grady students is the Junior National Honor Society. To be eligible a student must be at least in the second semester of his Freshman year, have an "A" average, and have shown outstanding scholarship and leadership. By setting up an organization which encourages high standards and honors, the accomplishments of underclassmen, the Junior National Honor Society provides an early goal for Grady students in addition to its service projects.

Each year members sell popcorn to raise money, some of which goes to provide a medal awarded by the society to the sub-freshman with the highest scholastic standing at the end of the eighth grade. This outstanding eighth-grader's name is engraved on a plaque in front of the office. The officers this year are Caroline Walker, president, Milton Lefkoff, vice-president, and Rochelle Alhadeff, secretary-treasurer.

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club, largest of the honor clubs, is a service organization, and is a part of the National Beta Club. Among their annual projects, they take care of the flags, cleaning them, keeping the staffs painted, and keeping the trophies shined and the trophy case polished. The Grady chapter requires members to have a "B" average, to have Junior or Senior standing, and be outstanding and active in co-curricular, community activities.

They must have proved their leadership, ability, sportsmanship and school spirit. Sponsored by Mr. Green, the Beta Club promotes high ideals, hard work, high standards of scholarship and good citizenship. There are not over sixty members.

This year Elizabeth Barrett is president, Carol Cheek, vice-president, Deanna Spector, secretary, and Brownie Flowers, treasurer. In addition to the annual project, they choose a special project each year.

The members gave money to the football team for their socks, and they bought a clock for the snack bar. This year they raised funds for their various projects by selling Christmas cards and doughnuts.

The Grady chapter sent six delegates to the Georgia convention in January, one for every ten members on the roll. This convention is always held in Atlanta, and consists of a skit Friday night, and campaigning by candidates, panel discussion Saturday morning, and a banquet and dance Saturday night.

JUNIOR CIVITANS

The Junior Civitans are a high branch of the Senior Citizen Organization. Members are elected primarly on a basis of leadership and service. They must have an acceptable scholastic record and various other requirements.

They select a student each month who has made outstanding contributions to Grady and recognizes him as "Citizen of the Month." Each year they sell fruitcakes and use the proceeds on something for the school, such as records to be used in various classes. The club keeps a chapter scrapbook which contains records of every activity which any member has participated in.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The members of Quill and Scroll are students who work on either of the two Grady publications who have maintained at least a "B" average throughout high school. They must have Junior or Senior standing and worked on the staff of the Orator or Southerner for at least a year. They meet to learn more about journalism and improve the quality of the publications. To do this they have several speakers at meetings during the year.

A SENIOR'S LAMENT

It is customary at graduation, to be led up to the mountain top and be shown the glittering world all around, and be told that with diligence, patience, and honesty, it will one day be our apple. The world that set this tradition is not the same world we face. We were born during the desperate days just prior to World War II. We have lived our lives in the shadow of the cold war. The world now stands ready to plunge into another all out war at any moment. We are accustomed to uncertainty; we grew up with it.

If the challenge before us is not the kind of challenge a doting parent would choose, it is a challenge which is meaningful to a generation bred in the face of danger.

There is a chance of reward to match the rise in this challenge, and so there is still a point in going up to the mountaintop for a clear view of what the future could bring.

It could, of course, bring war and bondage and desolation. But there is a chance of a world free of misery, a world in which a man can walk in dignity, with the basic freedoms of speech, worship, and through a world in which equal protection of just laws is guaranteed to every individual. These things can be spread throughout the world or lost beyond recall.

The world will soon be ours, whether we like it or not. If man has accomplished nothing in all his years on earth except the ability to do in hours what once took years, then the burden merely lies more squarely upon us, for what once took generations can now happen before our eyes. The decay and desolation of a great nation or the birth of a world of decency and freedom and justice can come in our lifetime. We hold within ourselves all the good and all the evil of the human race. These are realities as awesome and as inspiring as any romantic writer ever dreamed of. The challenge is before us, we have in our hands and hearts and heads what it takes to meet this challenge.

SENIORS' LAST DAYS

As we spent our last days at Grady, we did not find much time for reflection. We were much too busy. Occasionally, though, we would steal a few minutes on our private possession, the senior patio. And sometimes we found a minute to think. There were a great many things to think about on these last days: five years with all the fun, knowledge, and hard work; the experiences we would not trade for anything; the things we would not have to do again, but were very glad we did the first time. And then there were the things we would very much like to undo. All the things we meant to do but never quite got around to, came back to us. We thought about what we have learned both in class and out, and we thought of all we could have learned but did not. The friends with whom we have shared all of these things, the new friends, the old ones who have moved or drifted away. We wonder about some of the changes and we wonder a lot about ourselves. We wonder if we have made a success of high school and we wonder if we can handle the future. It was not all good, but it was, very often, very good. We feel a little humble, a little sad, yet, rather proud and terribly glad.

JUNIORS

In our junior year we were much more conscious of such things as graduation and college or career, for now we were upper classmen. We had only two years left in high school and we had to make sure that we got all the necessary requirements for graduation and the college or career of our choice. The school helped us make these important decisions by sponsoring career day and college day. More and more of our courses were advanced and specialized and we were eligible for the honor clubs, Senior National Honor Society, Beta Club, Quill and Scroll, and Junior Civitans. Then came the day that we ordered our Senior rings and the night of the Junior-Senior Prom, and with graduation we pinched ourselves and discovered to our surprise that we were finally Seniors and our Junior year was over.

SOPHOMORES

We have reached the halfway mark in our high school career. In the tenth grade we discover we have more and more choice of subjects, and as we make our choices we must keep in mind our final goals. We are beginning to take some advanced courses. We are eligible for more and more activities. This year we formed our own social clubs. We are beginning to think more seriously of what lies ahead. For the first time we attend the college day programs at which we learn about colleges in general and the college of our choice in particular. We also go to career day and hear members of a profession discuss the advantages, disadvantages, requirements and opportunities of their chosen fields. We have lost the gaping awe we felt for upper-classmen when we were sub-freshmen. They are only the same people who were freshmen and sophmores when we were in the eighth grade. The boys seem suddenly taller and older in their military uniforms and there is much clicking of heels and about-facing.

FRESHMEN

As we entered the ninth grade, we really became a part of high school. We could choose, at least to some extent, what courses we took, and we got credit for courses taken. We were then eligible for many of the activities around Grady, which was not true last year. Beside the pleasure these new privi-ledges gave us, we had added responsibility. What we did really counted. Though at times we still felt very small and unimportant in the scheme of things, we realized that what we were doing was a part of our record and in the years to come would be referred to in the future by colleges and prospective employers.

SUB-FRESHMEN

Our first year at Grady opened up a whole new world for us. We were high school students. That meant not only that we attended a different school, where we changed classes every period, but it also meant a multitude of other things, some of which we had never even dreamed existed. There were football games, pep rallies, and courses so very different from those we had known. There were the special under-classmen square dances and our first Cinderella Ball as well as other dances. We had our own football team and cheerleaders. We learned for the first time what school spirit, which we had heard of so long, really was. No one else seemed very impressed with our marvelous accomplishment of having started to high school. We realized what it was to be at the bottom of the ladder. After the initial shock and bewilderment and adjustment to our new states, we more realistically faced the wonderful opportunities and experiences open to us as sub-freshmen.

GRADY SELF GOVERNMENT

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Co-Presidents of the student body head the Student Council, which is made up of the President, Vice-President of each grade level, the president of the Inter-Club Council, the highest military officer. Mr. King is the advisor.

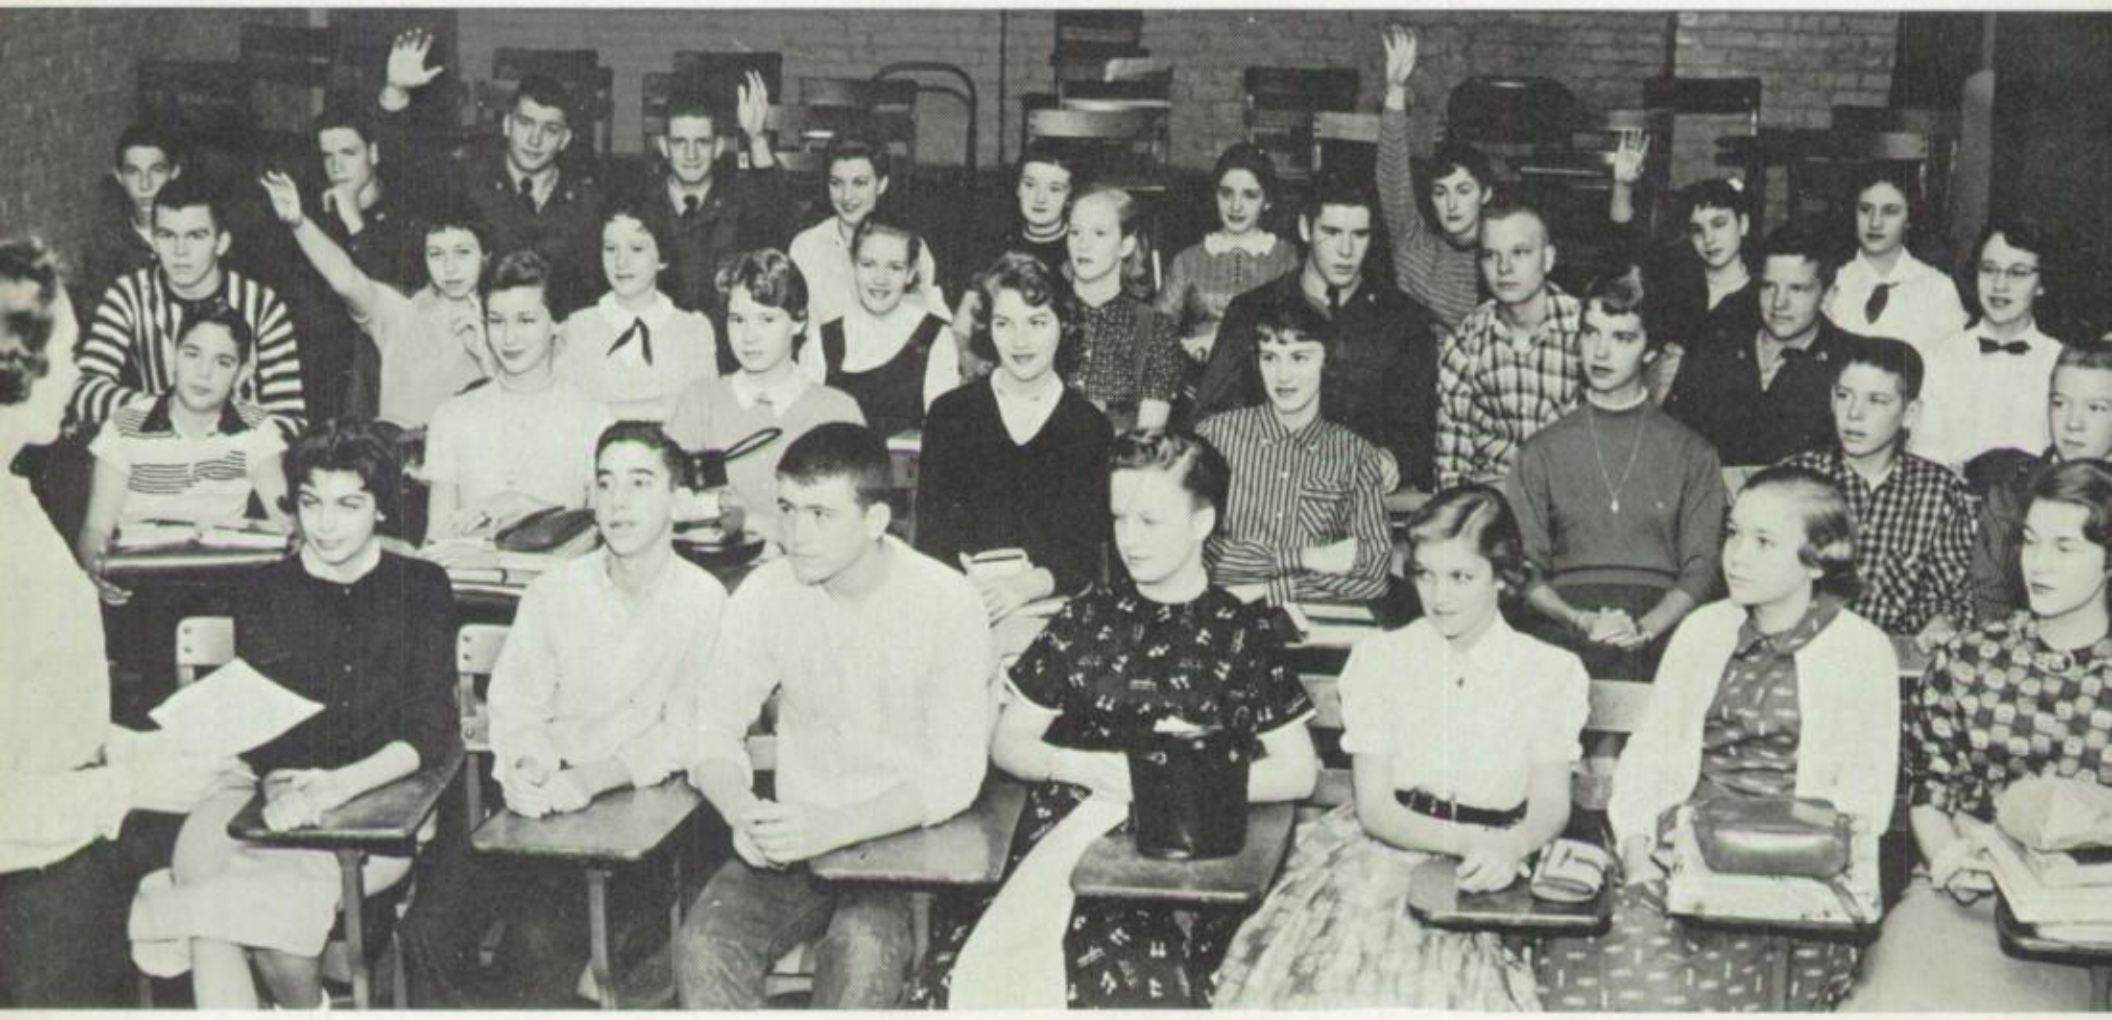
The student council meets every week and plans the supervision of the halls, projects to promote school spirit and make Grady a better place. In the fall they plan the football dances, and Cinderella Ball in January. In the Spring they supervise the elections.

HOMEROOM PRESIDENTS

Every other week the board of homeroom presidents meets with the Student Council. They act as liasons between the student body and the student council, explaining, policing and projects set up by the council and offering students' suggestions. In addition to this they serve on committees to see that plans are carried out.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

The Inter-Club Council consists of a representative from each social club and serves primarily to coordinate the activities of clubs and plan the two social dances. The Christmas Dance and the Vacation Dance.



HOMEROOM PRESIDENTS

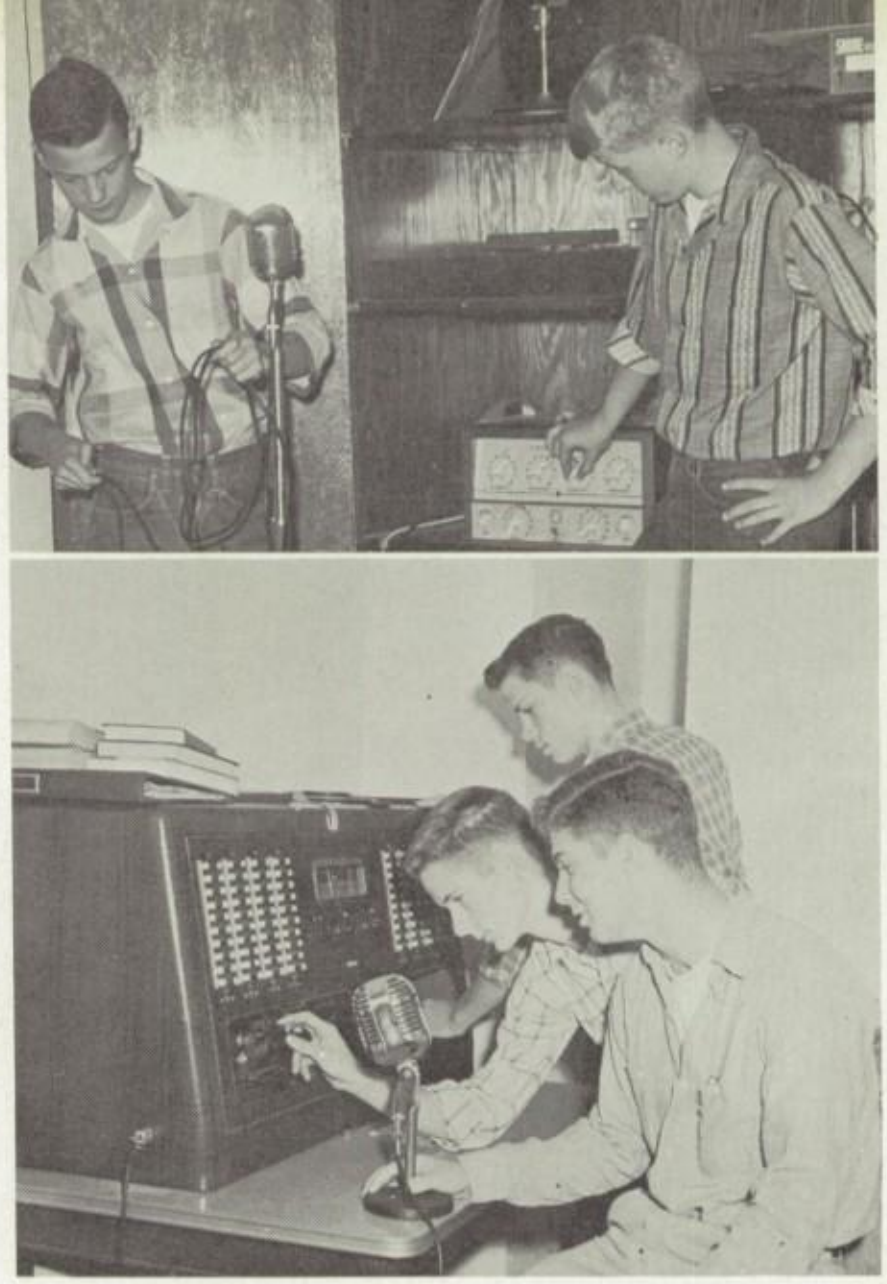
F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America provide for girls with special interest in homemaking wonderful opportunities to learn more about it and participation in many projects and activities along that line. The members filled a Thanksgiving basket for the less fortunate, made cookies at Christmas for Scottish Rite Hospital, and gave a party for a Crippled Children's Home. They also served at the Football Banquet. Several members usually attend state and district F.H.A. meetings each year. Adolf Michele spoke to them on grooming, at one of the meetings.

P.A. SYSTEM

Each morning the Bible reading, the prayer, the pledge to the flag and the announcements of club meetings, activities of the student council, and special events are brought to all Grady students by the public address system. The boys who make the announcements are chosen by their speaking voices.



Jimmy Crawford, Dan Goldwasser, Dev McClatchey, Jimmy Murray, Joe Whiteman.

Joe K's

The Joe K's Club is a service organization formed in memory of Joe Kelly, a former Grady teacher who died of multiple sclerosis. The main project is helping with the Multiple Sclerosis Drive in the spring. The members sell "candy pulling" annually for this cause.

In addition to this they play records each Friday in the cafeteria, and make up a Thanksgiving box, and collect old toys at Christmas.

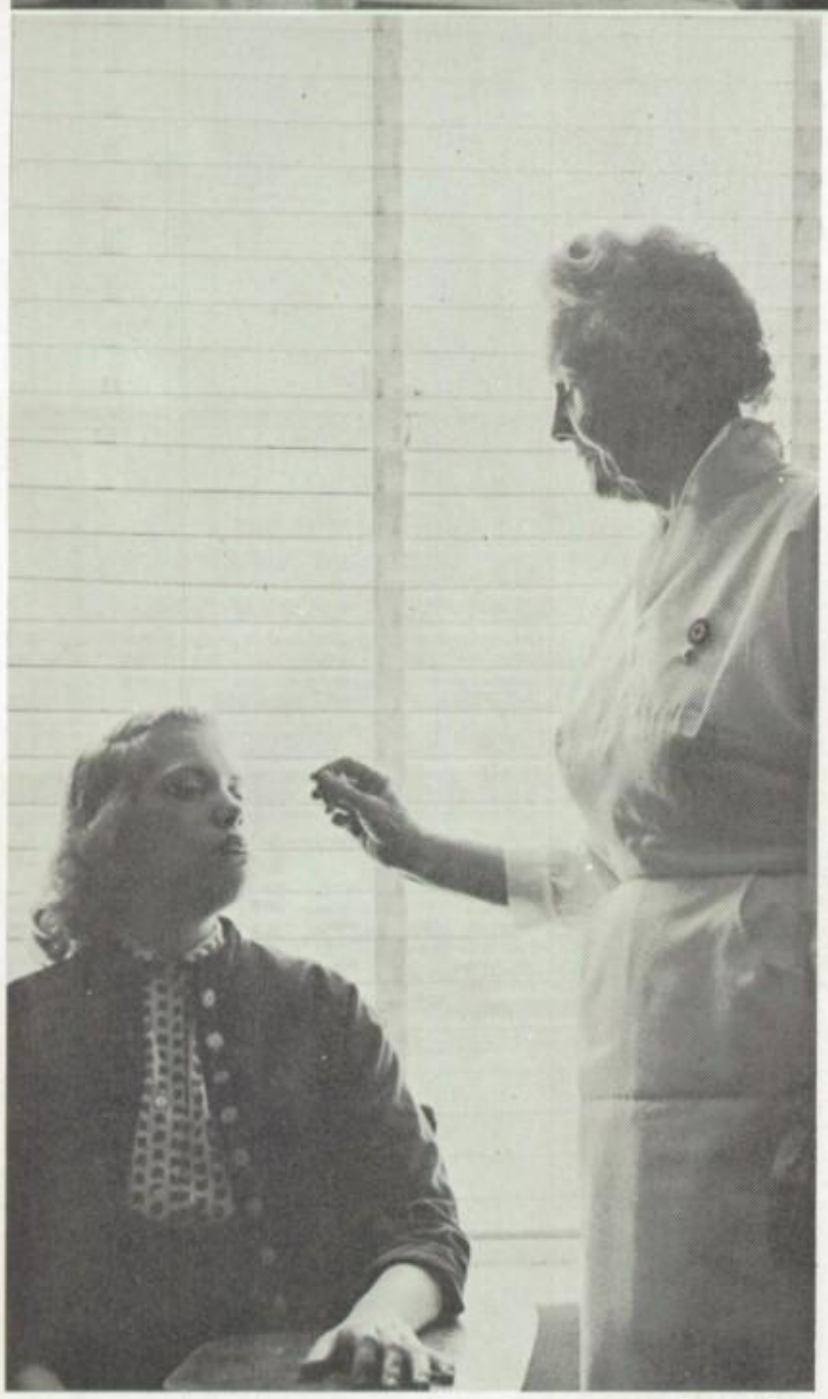
CLINIC

Our nurse, Mrs. Bowcock, has more than she can do handling all the aches, pains, and medical appointments of Grady students. The clinic assistants help schedule examinations such as chest x-rays, file cards, keep records and run errands.



CLINIC ASSISTANTS

THE CAFETERIA AND SNACK BAR

The cafeteria and snack bar assistants help by serving food, acting as cashiers, and working behind the counters to add to the efficiency of the cafeteria and snack bar.

SNACK BAR

CAFETERIA

The library assistants check books in and out, dust shelves, return books to their proper places, handle students' permits, send out overdue notices, and aid students in the use of the available material. Under the direction of the librarians, Miss Respess and Mrs. Martin, they perform these routine tasks, which keep the Library running smoothly and making it easy for any student to find exactly what he wants at the Library.

The Counselors, Miss Setze and Mr. Morris, are helped through their busy schedules by their assistants who run errands, deliver messages, and help with the routine of the counselors office.

COUNSELORS' ASSISTANTS

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The main duty of the Future Teachers of America is to take charge of classes when teachers are absent. Sponsored by Mrs. Walker, the organization is composed of juniors and seniors who have scholastic averages of "B" or above, and an interest in teaching. Each member who teaches a minimum of forty hours during the year receives a letter, although it is not considered an activity course.

Shirley Mendel, substitute for teacher.

BANK DIRECTORS

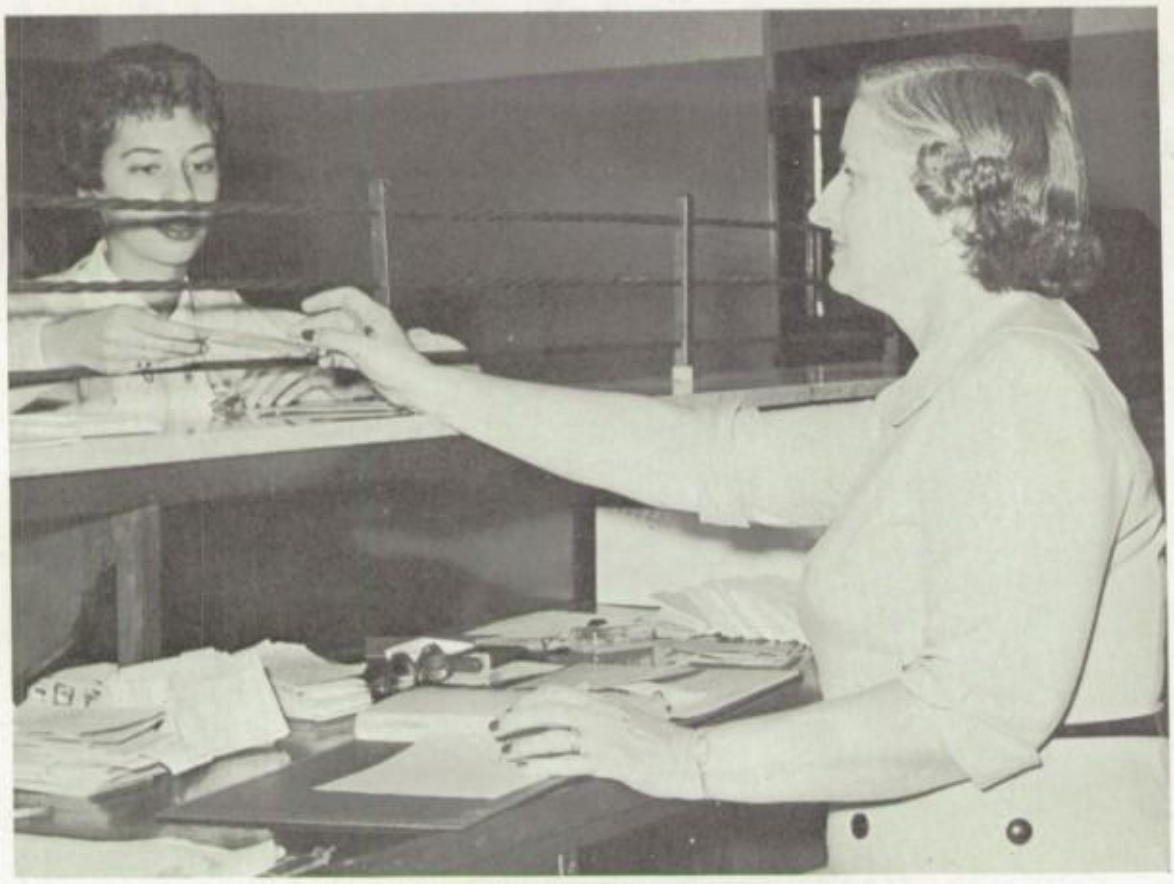
MONEY'S NO OBJECT
MONEY'S THE SUBJECT

The school bank at Grady is operated in connection with the Fulton National Bank to encourage students to save regularly. Having it at the school makes it easy for students to save without having to go to a lot of trouble and take time out of their busy schedules. It is open for deposit on Mondays, when students are most likely to have allowances and hard earned pay checks. These transactions are handled in extended homeroom periods on Monday. Students are given regular bank-books and an account at the Fulton National Bank. There is a bank teller in every homeroom who handles all the money. He takes deposits, checks the bankbooks, and is responsible for getting the check to a student who makes a withdrawal. They must correct all mistakes in this work.

Over the tellers are the bank directors. This group is in charge of all school bank functions. They go to homeroom to explain the banking system, to encourage saving among students, and to sell stock in the school bank to students, faculty, and parents. They report the activities of the bank at the monthly meetings, and are the measures to keep everything running satisfactorily. The school bank is sponsored at Grady by Mrs. Walter R. Trippe.



Bank teller files homeroom deposits with the bank.

LATIN CLUB

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, under the direction of Mrs. Sotus, was formed primarily to promote an interest in Latin and the culture from which it came. At some of the meetings every other week, the members heard talks on the trip on Europe which Mr. King and some others took last summer, and they saw film strips. At the annual Roman Banquet they dressed up in costumes of ancient Rome, bought slaves for the night, which built up the treasury, and spent the evening as they did in the days of the Empire. Members also attended the Latin Club convention which is always held in Atlanta. Kerfoot Ritter was the President, Brenda Gaugh the vice-president, Linda Baker, Secretary, and Lucrecia Bowdoin was treasurer.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club, sponsored by Miss Forman, is open to students of all grade levels who are interested in playing Chess. Records were kept on the ladder system; members played in pairs and the winner goes up one place each time and played off the other person on the same step. The top 8 members played teams from the other schools in the High School Chess League, which was organized 3 years ago.

CHESS CLUB

FRENCH CLUB

There are three divisions of the French Club at Grady, for advanced, intermediate and beginning students. They all joined together for socials, such as the ice-skating party in November and the dinner in January. Sponsored by Miss Mayton, the purpose of the clubs is to use French outside of class and to become acquainted with the customs, dress and life of French speaking people. At the monthly meetings which are conducted in French according to parliamentary procedure the clubs have such things as musical programs, and plays to achieve greater understanding of the French language and the people who speak it. The officers for the beginning French Club are: Annetta McConnell, President; Wayne Gibson, Vice President; Eugenia Rice, secretary; David Flowers, Treasurer. The president of the Intermediate Club is Jim Baxter, the vice-president is Mary Long Timmerman; secretary, Jenny Morse; and treasurer is Sue Raiford. Officers for the Advanced Club are: President, Dev McClatchey; vice president, Carol Cheney and Secretary-Treasurer, Jackie Burns.

SCIENCE CLUB

MEMBER OF THE JUNIOR ACADEMY OF SCIENCE

Sponsored by Mr. Sanders, members develop their interest in the scientific world at the meetings, which are held twice monthly. This interest is developed through field trips to places such as the Water Works, Atlantic Steel Company, and Emory. At Emory this year they were able to see the university's rock collection.

Members help each other with projects that are entered in the Science Fair and the Science Congress. In the past Grady entries have been outstanding and won recognition for the students and the school.

Y-TEENS FOR GIRLS

Members of the Y-Teens club at Grady are part of the national Y-Teens organization, live by the teen code, and participate in many worth while activities. Affiliated with the Y.W.C.A., these girls enjoy all the opportunities of this worthwhile organization to improve themselves and their community. Grady has eighth and ninth grade chapters and a senior chapter for tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade girls. The senior chapter was organized this year at Grady. The club's annual money-raising project is selling potato chips. Each year the Y-Teens in Atlanta give a fashion show. This year the 8th grade chapter at Grady won a silver gavel for selling more tickets to this event than any other group in Atlanta. The 8th grade Y-Teens are sponsored by Miss Marion Davenport and the 9th grade by Miss Patti Mayton.

9th GRADE Y-TEENS

JUNIOR HI-Y CLUB FOR BOYS

The Junior Hi-Y like the coed Hi-Y is affiliated with the Y.M.C.A. and consists of eighth and ninth grade chapters of Hi-Y clubs at Grady. These organizations for boys help promote clean living and high principles in school, sports, and daily life. With the help of their advisor, Mr. Strickland, these boys grow in the high ideals of the organizations into better, more useful, happier citizens. The induction was held jointly with the coed Hi-Y and the Hi-Y clubs from the Northside and North Fulton. Advisor for both 8th and 9th grade chapters of Jr. Hi-Y's is Mr. Harry Strickland. Officers for the 9th grade are: President, Mark Lichenstein; Vice-President, Jim Howard; Secretary, Jim Downing; Treasurer, Walter Thompson; Chaplain, Herbie Hives; Sergeant-at-arms, Paul Kindsvater.

COED HI-Y

The Coed Hi-Y at Grady is composed of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade chapters, each which takes part in Christmas Caroling at Haven Home and sells candy for the Y.M.C.A. World Service Campaign. The chapters also sponsor additional activities throughout the year, such as selling Christmas cards. Each year in the fall the four chapters go on a house party to Camp Waco.

At the bi-weekly meetings the chapters have guest speakers on various subjects, panel and group discussions, and talks by members on subjects that concern all young people. At each meeting the members are reminded of the vows they make when they joined:

"Know and help your club achieve the H-Y purpose."

"To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian Character."

"To have clean-speech, Clean Athletics, Clean Scholarship and Clean living."

"To attend meetings regularly, accept certain responsibilities, and work to make your Club more effective in its Service, Educational, Sports, and Worship programs."

"To carry your share of the Financial responsibilities by payment of club dues, Y.M.C.A. membership, and registration fees."

Membership in Coed Hi-Y includes membership in the National Hi-Y Fellowship and the World Wide Fellowship of the Young Men's Christian Association. The first Coed Hi-Y chapter in the nation was formed at Grady.

Officers of the Hi-Y Fellowship were as follows: President, Landy Carmer; vice-president, Barbara Barnes; Recording Secretary, Marilyn Wade; Corresponding Secretary, Kay Coleman; Treasurer, Eddie Brandt; Chaplain, Joan Mumford; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Bricker Burns. The over all sponsor is Mr. Neal Baxter.

8TH GRADE CHEERLEADERS

CHEERLEADERS

The varsity cheerleaders at Grady are Junior and Senior girls chosen at tryouts in the spring. They are picked for their personality, ability, and school spirit. A week and a half before school starts, these girls begin practice, which continues long afterwards. During the football season the girls cheer at pep rallies every week and sell football tickets and programs. They are always there at football games encouraging school spirit and cheering in all kinds of weather. This year they bought new uniforms with short skirts. The squad separates into two groups for the basketball season, each group cheering at every other game. Barbara Barnes and Ellen Jane Ison serve as co-captains. The cheerleaders invent many new cheers each season as well as using the old favorites and make up routines to the Grady songs.

The B-team cheerleaders, selected from the freshman and sophomore girls, cheer at all B-team games. They also cheer during the half time of varsity football games, help out the varsity girls at pep rallies and do some cheering on their own at assemblies. Kay Hataway and Diane Scarborough were co-captains this year.

MAJORETTES

The majorettes are selected for their dancing skill and twirling ability. They march with the band at parades and football games and for special routines at assemblies. Head majorettes were Janet Floyd and Carol Cheek.

B-TEAM CHEERLEADERS

DEBATING CLUB

The purpose of the Debating Club is to teach members to think logically, and to prepare and give speeches well. To do this, at the meeting every other Thursday night, members debate a subject which was decided upon at the last meeting. Each debate is judged and discussed according to definite rules on content and presentation. A team from Grady went to Emory and debated in the National High School Debating Contest. The officers are Kerfoot Ritter, President; Alfred Willis, Vice-President; Marcia Fitterman, Secretary, and Wendy Richardson, Social Chairman. The sponsor is Mr. Randolph.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

The band sponsored by Mr. Seitz has been one of the outstanding groups at Grady. Consisting of about one hundred students from all grade levels, it contributes much to the spirit of the whole school, and the quality of the groups is proved by its annual "superior" rating at the music festival. Aside from competing with other school organizations, the Band also does a fine job at pep rallies, football games, and other activities.

The band parents raise money for new instruments and sponsor parties twice a year, for band members. Besides helping the school, the band provides excellent training for its members.

Also under the direction of Mr. Seitz, is the orchestra. This group adds much to the culture and entertainment of the school. With the band they present a concert each year for the student body and the parents. One of the highest rated orchestras of its kind in Georgia, they entertain occasionally at assemblies and have several parties each year.

Together these two organizations provide the school with a rich supply of talent in instrumental music and do much for the enjoyment and the spirit of the student body. Grady is proud of its band and orchestra.

This year the orchestra was invited to the Convention of the Southern Conference of Music Educators in Miami. The band played at the Miss America Parade.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus, which has both boys and girls, provides regular entertainment at assemblies and P.T.A. meetings. The group has never fallen below an "excellent" ruling at the state festival. The chorus has won "superior" ratings a number of years in the state-wide competition as it did this year. The high light of the year's work is the presentation of the annual operetta. In the spring the Girls Glee Club and the Mixed Chorus gave a joint concert. The chorus has entertained at many outside functions for school organizations, churches, and other groups. "Doc" Rumble who has directed the chorus for the past several years, with the exception of the year spent in Europe on a Fellowship. provides excellent training for the members of the chorus in all forms of groups singing.

ORATOR

The Staff of the Orator began work on the 1957 Orator in February of 1956 under the guidance of Miss Kerrison. The style of the book, and layouts were made in the spring, as well as pictures of such things as spring sports, campaigns and elections. The Orator Staff also made up the student directory called "Who's where at Grady". Marcia Fitterman editor-in-chief, Achsah Posey, copy editor, Elaine Gilner, business manager. Editors of the sections as follows: Shirley Mendel, Organizations; Dale Thomas, Sports; Norma Billirakis, Seniors; Angela Chotas, Classes; Betsy Chotas, Honors; Peggy Berchenko, Military; Hedy Wachtel, Faculty; Elaine Gilner, Introduction; Revelle Pergament, Social clubs; and Guinn Everett, Ads.

Every issue of the Orator since Grady was opened in 1947 has received an honor rating from both the National Scholastic Press Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

SOUTHERNER

Every month the Southerner staff puts out a paper with all the news about Grady activities and things of interest to Gradyites outside the school. Aside from coverage of regular events and special features, they sponsor the election in November and selection of senior superlatives in the Christmas issue. Under the direction of Mrs. Postman, the Southerner keeps us informed of alumni news, student polls, what other students are doing, and the inside story of many important phases of Grady Life. The editors-in-chief were Carol Stephens, and Herbert Mendel.

We from Grady couldn't be prouder of the Southerner for the recognition it has received from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the Georgia Scholastic Press Association.

THEY FIGHT ON

Grady has always had one of the outstanding football teams in the city, including the AA State Championship team of 1953. The 1956 team was no exception to past rules of excellence, although the record of five wins and five losses might indicate this at first glance. Four out of five losses were by one touchdown, which indicated that our team was battling in each of these games, with a good chance of winning right up to the final whistle.

The high point of the season came when an underdog Grady team rose up to defeat highly-favored North Fulton.

The most outstanding individual players were Tom Smith, end, and Eddie Brandt, quarterback. Brandt was an excellent field general, ran well, played outstanding defense, and completed 50 percent of his pass attempts, one of the best pass completion records in the state. Tom Smith proved himself one of the better pass-receivers in the city, intercepting five passes during the season. Both of these boys made the All City Football Team. We are proud of the fine spirit and the great teamwork shown by our football team.

HIP HOORAY FOR MR. TOUCHDOWN U.S.A.

The B-Team, made up of ninth and tenth grade boys, and the 8th grade football teams had excellent records this year. Each Saturday morning, the B-Team, coached by Mr. Whitsett, played the last seven schools the Varsity plays. This year they won five games, tied two, and lost none, and were the only undefeated team in the region. Outstanding members of the team were backs Bobby Dodd, Frank Austin, Harold Gelber, and Robert Norris, and linemen Hilton Fuller, Jim Wade, Tommy Hills, Dick Eberhardt, Larry Hopkins, John Mitchell, and Joe Hudson. The B-Team gave up only 17 points during the season.

The eighth grade football team got off to a good start this year by beating O'Keefe 27-0, Bass 6-0, and Roosevelt 13-6. The boys steadily progressed as the season came to a close. Three backfield boys, Larry Peek, John Anderson, and Jerry Davis, sparked the team, while linemen Rufus Brown, John Steele, and Ralph Shaw gave them the support they needed. Captains for the eighth grade team were appointed for each game. Larry Peek and Jerry Davis were elected at the close of the season.

All in all the 8th grade season was successful. This group started another Grady football team climbing the ladder to success as a winning varsity in five years.

BASKETBALL

GIRLS' TEAM

The girls' basketball team was also inexperienced having graduated four forwards and two guards trained by Coach Haldeman. The team included Barbara Barnes, the smallest but best guard in the league, Maun Rudisill, who was a welcome addition to Grady last year, Ann Taylor, Nancy Matthews, and two four-year players, Salena Burnett and Annetta McConnell.

BOYS' TEAM

The 1957 Boys' Basketball Team, under Coach Skelton, featured three returning letterman—Eddie Brandt, Earle Saye, and Tom Smith, all of whom were first string last year. The team was made up largely of football players, most of whom were inexperienced in active play. Brandt was the most outstanding player.

The girls' and boys' basketball teams play each team in the city twice. There were no exceptional boys teams in the city this year. Neither the boys' nor the girls' team at Grady was very tall this year, the tallest first string man being T. R. Smith at 6' 2".

B TEAM FORMS POTENTIAL FOR VARSITY

The B-Team forms the potential for future varsity basketball teams at Grady. For this reason the emphasis is on the development of the players' individual abilities and work as a team rather than on winning particular games. Therefore, team standings are not compared with other schools, nor are playoffs or tournaments of any sort held at the close of the season. The B-Team played twelve games, playing the same schools as the varsity basketball team, and won eight. The starting line-up this season was: Bob Lilley, Jerry Katz, Charles Rosefeld, Bobby Dodd, and Frank Austin. Jerry Katz in particular is expected to be a very outstanding varsity player. The training and experience these boys receive at this level are invaluable later on and form a background on which further training will rest.

VARSITY BASEBALL

BASEBALL — one of the major sports at grady BASEBALL

B TEAM

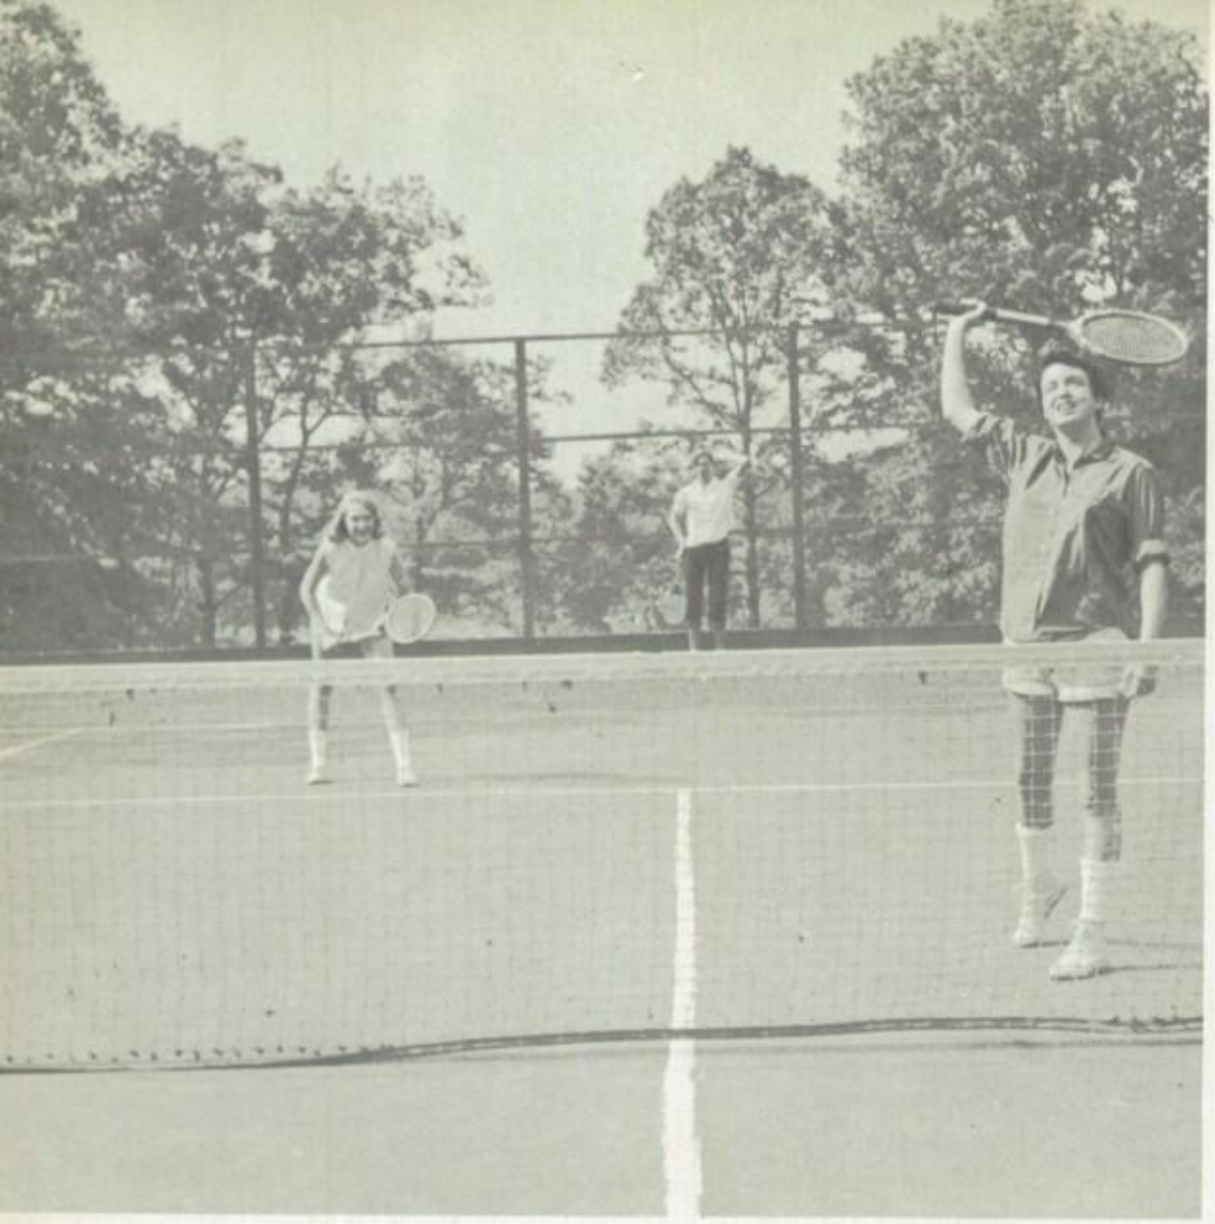
The B-Team squad had a 500 average, winning six games and losing six, in the spring 1956 season. Blessed with several outstanding players, they were led in hits by Billy Sanders with 384, followed by Nolan Robinson with 342, and Fisher with a 333. Nolan Robinson led the team in runs batted in, having thirteen to his credit. The most stolen bases were taken by Alec Long, who stole a total of thirteen during the season. The only homerun of the season was hit by Hilton Fuller. The boys, under the direction of Coach Skelton, learn the fundamentals of the game, get valuable playing experience, which builds a good background for the time when they will be on the Varsity team, and learn the still greater values of sportsmanship and fair play.

VARSITY

Baseball is one of the major sports at Grady. Baseball season begins with pre-season warm-up games which last for two weeks, the regular season beginning in late March and continuing through the second week in May. At the end of this time the championship play-offs begin.

In the past Grady baseball teams have won outstanding honors of which one was the City Championship in 1952. Coach Whitsett coached the varsity baseball team in the spring of last year. The captain was Tommy Scarborough, an excellent catcher. A fine team, composed almost entirely of experienced players, they finished third in the region with seven wins and only five losses. The leading hitter was Eddie Brandt with a .428 average.

The most outstanding pitchers were Park Turner, who was on the city All-Star team, George Heald, Joel Grayson, and Wink Wilkin.



TENNIS GIRLS AND BOYS

The tennis teams play the other schools in the region in dual matches and then go to the city meet at which the city championship is decided. There are three singles divisions and two doubles divisions for both boys and girls. The girls' Tennis team finished second in the tournament. Carolyn Cobb, the most outstanding player, went to the finals in her division, number two singles. The second division girls' doubles, Rita Benamy and Isabelle Scarborough, went to the finals. The girls won four games and lost two in the regular matches.

The Boys Tennis Team placed third in the tournament. In the second division doubles, Stuart Meyers and Freddy Aftergut went to the finals. Lester Pazol went to the semi-finals in number one singles.

GOLF

The golf team at Grady, coached by Mr. Glen Bradshaw, had a good season the spring of 1956. They played various teams in the city, winning all but one of the seven matches. They were defeated only by North Fulton's team.

During the season matches, two members of Grady's team play two from other schools in the city. The whole team played in the city tournament, at which Grady placed in the top three.

Jerry Greenbaum and Jimmy Cleveland averaged around 75 when they played.

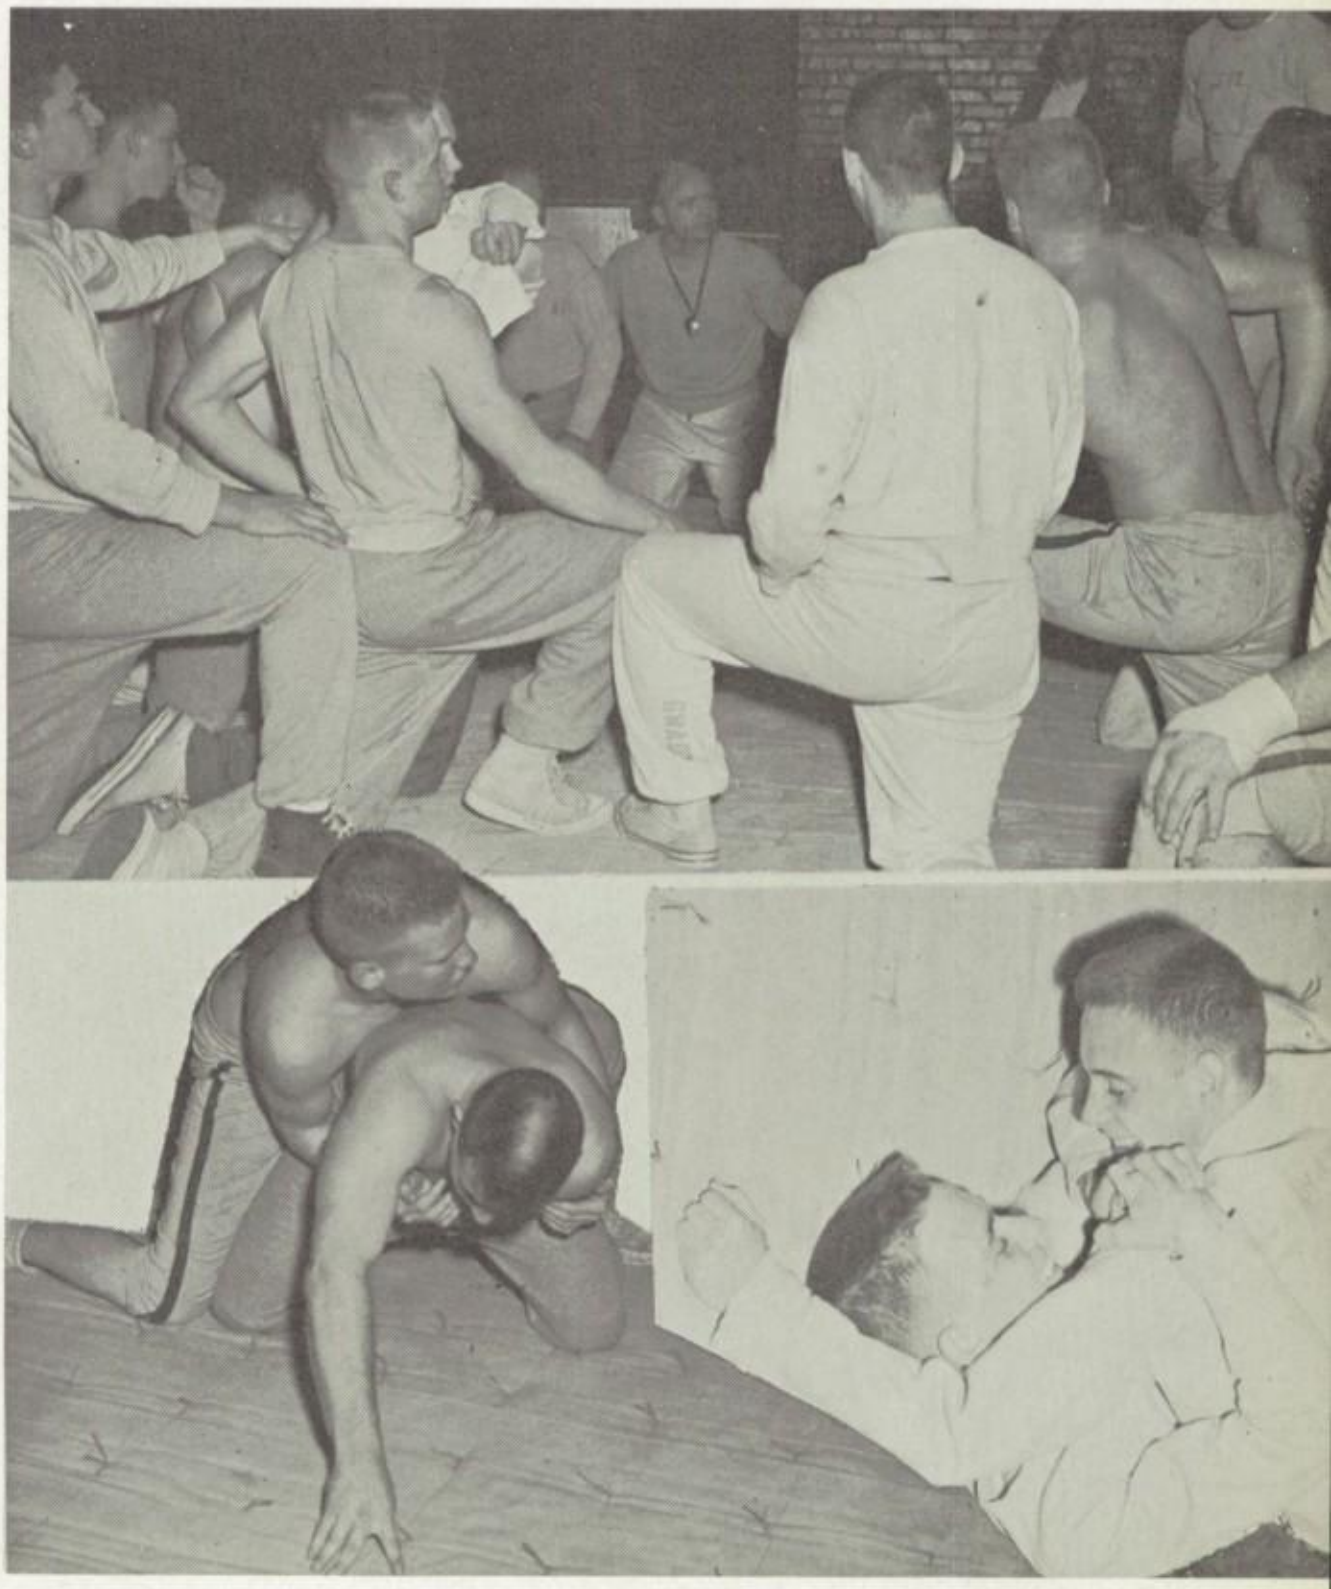
WRESTLING TEAM

WRESTLING



This is the first year Grady has had a wrestling team, but wrestling got off to a good start. Wrestling is a fairly new sport in Atlanta high schools, so Grady had no organized season of matches. It was necessary to compete with schools not in the city, county and private schools. The team met various schools on an individual basis, during the months of January and February.

Wrestling goes by weight divisions, and makes it possible for any boy, no matter how large or small, to represent his school in intermural competition. Its chief requirement is constant physical fitness. Grady's team consisted of: in the 100-pound division, Fabian Boudreau; in the 115-pound division, Mike Collins; in the 123-pound division, Sam Norwood; in the 130-pound division, Gary Hewes; in the 137-pound division, Garland Smith; in the 147-pound division, Allan Wesley and Harry Jackson; in the 157-pound division, Harvey Belson; in the 167-pound division, Frank Chastain; in the 177-pound division, Rhea Converse; in the 191-pound division, Larry Lafkowitz; and Heavy weight, Charles Windham, Tom Hill, and Bob Edwards.

Military

GRADY'S ENTIRE BATTALION

The military battalion at Grady began the year with bright prospects, having a good group of M-1's, hard working M-11's, and officers who gave the type of leadership that would weld the battalion into the effective, top-rate unit it has always been.

The Henry Grady Battalion staff was headed by Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Rhea Converse. Cadet Major Sewell Dixon was second in command. The battalion consisted of 218 men, constituting 3 companies. Sandy Atkinson, Tommy Smith and Tommy Neal were captains of these three companies. It is under the able direction and supervision of Captain Wm. B. Hill, Sergeant Robert Bailey, and Sergeant Coy Morris.

At the Georgia Military District Inspection in the spring of 1956, the Henry Grady Battalion competed against the other Georgia high schools having Jr. R.O.T.C. program, and was the best in the city. It also received a superior rating in the Federal Inspection, which it has consistently done. Grady has always had one of the best battalions in the state.

The objectives of the Military Department are to acquaint the boys with military procedure and discipline in preparation for college R.O.T.C., and to build a sense of responsibility for leadership when the cadet reaches the goal.

In their classroom periods the cadets learn to administer first aid, are taught military courtesy, and study weapons of various kinds. They are taught by lecture, movies, and drill to respect authority and discipline, to follow orders, and to protect themselves.

We are proud of the outstanding Military Department at Grady High School.

Mike Jones, Win Mothershed and Dan Goldwasser were three of the thirteen successful candidates from Atlanta selected for National R.O.T.C. Scholarship. This is an all expense scholarship for four years at any of the fifty-two colleges offering this program.

RIFLE TEAM

The rifle team is open to any boy taking military who has been at Grady at least one semester and is passing all his subjects. This year's team was experienced, all but one member having been on it before. Mike Jones, Sewell Dixon, Richard Wemmers, Walter Pierson, and Dan Goldwasser made up the team which fired against the teams from all the high schools in North Atlanta twice. It was a very good team, with Mike Jones contending for high scorer in the city.

NCO CLUB
CO CLUB

The military department has two clubs at Grady—the Officers Club and the Non-Commissioned Officers Club. These clubs are somewhat social in nature, their purpose being to increase unity and harmony among the boys who command. They jointly sponsor the Military Ball each winter. At this dance, one of the highlights of the year, the cadets chose Gail Morrison as "Miss R.O.T.C.".

The Officers Club is made up of the commissioned officers of the military department, consisting of twenty-eight men this year. The officers planned parties, hayrides, and other social functions throughout this school year, and held meetings weekly. The president was Rhea Converse, the vice-president was Dan Goldwasser, and the secretary-treasurer was Win Mothershed.

SABER DAY

In November, the officers of the Henry Grady Battalion are presented their sabers by their sponsors. At this ceremony the band and the drill team perform, and the battalion makes its first dress appearance of the year before the student body. After the officers receive their sabers and present their sponsors to the battalion, they all go on a picnic.

Social Clubs

FOLLOW THE SOCIAL CLUBS THROUGH A YEAR OF WORK AND PLAY...

At Thanksgiving each club collects food for the annual Thanksgiving offering to under privileged children and pack it in the boxes the members decorated for that purpose. Other service projects include helping a needy family by the donation of clothes, food, toys, and gifts. Other clubs visit various children's homes and hospitals around the city to entertain the children. Selling poppies for Veteran's Day, sponsoring new clubs at other schools that had previously had no social clubs, and dressing dolls for the Salvation Army, were undertaken by other clubs.

During the Christmas season the clubs mend toys, sing carols, give parties for themselves and others, and decorate the Christmas trees in the cafeteria and in front of the office.

The Social Clubs sponsor two annual dances for the whole student body. These dances are entirely in the charge of the social club members, who sell tickets, make no-break books, decorate for the dance, make posters and other announcements to advertise the dances. One is the Christmas Dance, the other, at the end of the year, the Vacation Dance. Profits from both these dances are turned over to the school.

The first social clubs were organized at Henry Grady seven years ago, and in the years that have followed they have become an important part of Grady life. Each club is organized by a group of girls or boys to carry out some project for the school or for charity, and to have good times together. Each social club is made up of not less than ten nor more than fifteen members from either the tenth, eleventh, or twelfth grades, and all members of a club must be from the same class. The clubs usually have regular meetings at which they elect officers and an Inter-Club Council Representative, and work on their projects and plan parties. Each representative, who serves on the Inter-Club Council, keeps his club in touch with the activities of other social clubs both collectively and individually.

The Inter-Club Council gives four breakfasts each year for the social club members. Besides enjoying food and fellowship at these breakfasts, social club members are treated to skits given by individual clubs. New clubs are welcomed.

For fun the clubs gave spend-the-night parties, luncheons, dinners and dances. They also planned trips to Daytona and Panama City, and many gave house parties.

GEMS

The "Gems" prepare to take a trip to Daytona. Lots of luck to a great guy.
Lots of luck
as I said.
